To Whom It May Concern

Mr Tony Rotherham is a skilled 'lay-actor' and stunt-fighter who has brought his skills as a historical re-enactor to theatre, film and television for many years, particularly in association with myself and Jeremy Freeston, Director of Macbeth (1996) ; these skills and enthusiasm made him the first choice for two of our latest projects – the first being the video based on my book The Legend of Robin Hood.

Tony has a large stock of period costumes and weapons, and has an infinite knowledge of the Medieval period. His mannerisms and knowledge make him ideal for supporting roles, as seen in Macbeth and other feature films such as Chasing the Deer and The Bruce.

Tony directs his own small but award-winning theatre company Spirit Of England in the UK and overseas, starring each year in the internationally acclaimed 'Robin Hood Pageant' at Nottingham Castle.
